DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-6, drawn to a package of poly bags, classified in class 383, subclass 127.
- II. Claim 7, drawn to a method of storing bags, classified in class 383, subclass 32.
- III. Claims 8-16, drawn to a storage device for bags, classified in class 224, subclass 191.
- IV. Claims 17-20, drawn to a scooper for dog excrement, classified in class 294, subclass 1.3.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the apparatus could be used to practice a different process specifically a process in which adjacent bags are not interleaved and that all of the bags stay inside the cover until removed by a user.

Invention III, and inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed Group III does not require the particulars of the subcombination Groups I and II as claimed because the combination does not require the details of the bag being folded along both the width and length but could be folded about only one axis. The subcombination has separate utility such as used directly without the need of a dispensing device by removing the bags directly from the cover.

Inventions I, II, III and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, inventions of groups I-III have separate utility since they all deal with the storage and dispensing of bags which do not require a scooper while group IV is directed to only a scooper which could be used with any bag. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

If Applicant elects Group III the following election of species is required.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I, Figures 10A-10G

Species II, Figures 11A-11B

Species III, Figures 12A-12D

Species IV, Figures 13A-13E

Species V, Figure 18

Species VI, Figure 14

Species VII, Figures 17A-17F

Species VIII, Figures 15A-15N

Further, if Applicant elects Group IV the following election of species is required.

Species I, Figures 16A-16C

Species II, Figures 16D-16E

Species III, Figures 16H-16I

Species IV, Figures 16J-16L

Species V, Figure 16M

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
